

IRON-EXCESS

Key Facts About Iron-Excess

Iron-Excess was formed in 2017 to expand Ironshore's underwriting agency business to the U.S. and London market.

Iron-Excess underwrites on behalf of Ironshore and Antares Syndicate 1274.

- Ironshore is a U.S. domiciled company rated A (Excellent) by A.M. Best and "A" by Standard & Poor's.
- Antares Syndicate 1274, benefits from the consistently strong security ratings assigned to Lloyd's, rated A (Excellent) by A.M. Best and "A+" by Standard & Poor's.

Policies are issued on a subscription basis with subscribing insurers Ironshore and Antares Syndicate 1274 each assuming a portion of the limit of liability on a several, not joint, basis.

Iron-Excess gives clients and brokers access to a large pool of capacity offered by Ironshore and third-party insurance partners, providing a natural solution to concerns around counterparty risk and their capacity needs.

Insured's counterparty risk is managed by utilizing the subscribing insurers with independent balance sheets supporting their portion of the risk insured. At the same time, we provide concurrency of terms and conditions and access to a single platform of underwriting and claims expertise for ease of doing business.

Iron-Excess has up to USD $50,000,000 capacity available.

Minimum attachment point of USD $75,000,000.

Coverage may be provided on an occurrence, claims made or occurrence reported basis.

Staffed by a dedicated team that work together on an integrated basis throughout the underwriting and claims process.
